

Gardens and Spirituality

Julie Moir Messervy's vision for composing gardens of meaningful beauty is changing the way people experience their outdoor surroundings.

Saturday Apr 18, 2009

2:00–3:30 p.m.

Trinity Church

206 Clarendon Street

Boston

Julie leads a movement in landscape design as a personal journey reflecting a concept deeply rooted in archetypes, childhood imagination, and esthetic impulses. In this lecture, Julie will show gardens that engender spirituality and reveal how spirituality can inform garden design. Her forthcoming book, Home Outside: Creating the Landscapes You Love, will be available for purchase and signing.

Fee $20 member, $25 nonmember

Please register in advance.

Arnold Arboretum: Leah Kane at 617.384.5251

Trinity Church: Kathy Acerbo-Bachmann at

617.536.0944 x217

Randy O'Rourke

Co-sponsored by

The Arnold Arboretum of Harvard University • Trinity Church in the City of Boston